

Ward Charter

Sexual Safety

Everyone has the right to feel safe from sexual harm. On this ward, we do not want you to feel uncomfortable, frightened or intimidated in a sexual way by service users or staff. We will work to promote everyone's sexual safety. Everyone should behave in a way that meets the following standards.

Expected standards of behaviour on Dragonfly unit

1	I respect myself
2	I treat others with respect and dignity
3	I will speak up if I have been hurt, harassed or assaulted physically or sexually
4	I will speak up if I see or hear about someone else being hurt, harassed or assaulted either physically or sexually
5	I will adhere to the electronics contract I signed upon admission and report any concerns from the young people on the unit
6	I will respect people's personal preferences and choices in relation to sexuality and identity free from judgment

If you feel too frightened or upset, please talk to a member of staff. You can also get independent advice or support by phoning (citizen advice) on 03444111444 between 9am to 5pm.
