THIRTEENTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE 18th - 21st September 2009 Cober Hill, Cloughton, near Scarborough

You are warmly invited to join us at the thirteenth annual conference of the Transpersonal Psychology Section. The conference is open to all who have an interest in the areas of spirituality, meditation, evolution of higher levels of consciousness, transpersonal psychotherapy, wholeness and wellbeing, aspects of paranormal experience and explorations of the possibility of post-mortem survival. The openness, warmth and friendliness of the conference has become its hallmark over the life and times of the Transpersonal Psychology Section. Meet old friends, make new connections and enjoy stimulating presentations and discussions in the peaceful and relaxing surroundings of Cober Hill!

Keynote Speakers

- Dr. Andrew Powell, Royal College of Psychiatrists: "Psychiatry and Spirituality"
- Prof. Bernard Carr, Queen Mary, University of London: "Can Science be Extended to Incorporate Normal, Paranormal and Spiritual Experience?"
- Rev. Prasada Caroline Brazier: "Guilt: the taboo of our age?"
- Prof. David Fontana: "What Might Post-Mortem Survival Be Like?"
- Dr. Malcolm Walley: "Beyond Duality: Evolution, Being and Gender Revisited"
