FROM THE CRADLE TO BEYOND THE GRAVE?

The second national multi-faith symposium held under the auspices of the NIMHE Spirituality Project, Staffordshire University and the Spirituality and Mental Health Forum

A study day gathering together all people from the major faiths/beliefs and user and carer groups to consider 'end-of-life' issues and how faiths/beliefs can assist in making 'the fourth age' and the passing from this life as human and humane as possible.

The conference will be convened by
Martin Aaron, National Spirituality and Mental Health Forum

Professor Peter Gilbert, NIMHE and Staffordshire University

Professor Bernard Moss, Staffordshire University

Cost £75.00 including VAT

Unwaged and Students £20.00

Places are limited so booking will be on a first come first served basis. The conference will be recorded in our TV Studios and reproduced on a DVD.
