

Welcome!

Address to Edinburgh
by Robert Burns
(1759-1796)

Edina! Scotia's darling seat!
All hail thy palaces and tow'rs,
Where once, beneath a Monarch's feet,
Sat Legislation's sov'reign pow'rs:
From marking wildly scatt'red flow'rs,
As on the banks of Ayr I stray'd,
And singing, lone, the lingering hours,
I shelter in they honour'd shade.
Here Wealth still swells the golden tide,
As busy Trade his labours plies;
There Architecture's noble pride
Bids elegance and splendour rise:
Here Justice, from her native skies,
High wields her balance and her rod;
There Learning, with his eagle eyes,
Seeks Science in her coy abode.'

Welcome to the 2010 International Congress of the Royal College of Psychiatrists. We return to Edinburgh with the Burns' inspired theme 'Advancing Science' and a programme designed to inspire learning. In this year's programme we have moved away from the Institute Days of previous years towards topic based streams and the inclusion of training courses. The training courses are included in the price of the Congress as are all refreshments, the Media Training Booth and the Psychiatrists' Support Service. We have retained morning and lunchtime plenary sessions and sessions on Film and Literature in psychiatry. The extremely popular Trainees' Day and Trainees' Lounge continue again this year. The Congress is registered for both CPD and CME points.

We are immeasurably impressed by the contributions you tirelessly provide for the Congress and all the offers of help and advice we have received. We could not have delivered this excellent programme without all of you and take this opportunity to thank you all profusely for your input.

We look forward to seeing you in Edinburgh for:

'Who indeed that has once seen Edinburgh, but must see it again in dreams waking or sleeping.'
Charlotte Bronte, letter 1850

Helen Miller and Jon Bisson
Joint Chairs of the Organising Committee

General information

Accreditation

CPD

This congress is eligible for 1 CPD hour for each hour of educational activity in which you participate, subject to your own personal reflection and peer group approval

EACCME

This congress is accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) to provide CME activity for medical specialists. The EACCME is an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS). The congress is designated for a maximum of 6 hours per day of European external CME credits. Each medical specialist should claim only those hours of credit that he/she actually spent in the educational activity.

AMA

EACCME credits are recognized by the American Medical Association towards the Physician's Recognition Award (PRA). To convert EACCME credit to AMA PRA category 1 credit, contact the AMA.

College Gifts

Come and see the exciting new range of College gifts for sale on the College stand throughout the meeting. As well as our popular silk ties and key rings, we now have bone china College mugs, newly designed silver and enamel cuff links, and chrome pens.

College Website

Find out what is available in the Members' area of the newly designed College website. Our Website Manager will be present to answer your questions and show you how to access podcasts, book reviews, news feeds, our new Faculties sections, and information about events organised both by the College and other organisations.

CPD Online

The CPD Online Content Editor will be on hand to give demonstrations. There are now over 85 modules to choose from that can be used to gain up to 10 hours of core learning towards your CPD requirements. Plus, there are 42 modules based on podcasts of interviews with leading psychiatrists. Many institutions have signed up for multi-user subscriptions – visit us to discover if your place of work is one of these, entitling you to free access.

Membership Information

Please visit us with any queries about your membership, to find out how you can join the College if you are not a Member or Associate, or to learn more about the benefits of membership.

Mental Health Information Leaflets

Pick up our colourful Resource Catalogue and free copies of the College's popular and award-winning mental health information leaflets for patients, carers and professionals. Choose from the many new titles of our recently redesigned and updated leaflets.

National Collaborating Centre for Mental Health (NCCMH)

The NCCMH is hosted by the Royal College of Psychiatrists and funded by the National Institute for Clinical Excellence (NICE) to develop mental health clinical guidelines for the National Health Service.

College Centre for Quality Improvement (CCQI)

The CCQI builds on the work of the NCCMH. It promotes excellence in mental healthcare by setting standards for mental health services and through national clinical audits, peer-review networks and accreditation of clinical services. More than 90% of mental health services in the UK participate in the work of the CCQI.

Overseas Volunteer Scheme

Come and hear about the Overseas Volunteer Scheme organised by the International Advisory Committee. Find out about volunteer opportunities that are available to College members and find out how to register as a College volunteer.

Professional Standards

The recently-renamed Professional Standards department now incorporates postgraduate education and training, examinations, CPD, revalidation, workforce and recruitment, the Education and Training Centre and the Conference Unit. Please come and discuss any of these issues or anything relating to the broad area of education and training.

Psychiatrists' Support Service

Find out more about our free, confidential, support and advice service for psychiatrists experiencing professional difficulty. This can include: bullying and harassment, career pathway issues, disciplinary matters, or involvement with the GMC or the National Clinical Assessment Service. The service provides signposting to organisations and services, and where appropriate refers the doctor to practical advice and mentoring from a College member.

RCPsych Publications

All RCPsych Publications' titles are on display, including books, reports, the flagship College Seminars Series and the innovative Books Beyond Words series. Our new title Social Inclusion and Mental Health is being launched this week. Please take this opportunity to browse through the books and to collect free journal samples.

Scottish Division

The Scottish Division is involved in many areas of College work, including policy and parliamentary liaison, organising academic meetings and training events, and workforce planning and training. We also look after a number of committees, and sub-sections. Find out more by talking to the Division staff.

Royal College of Psychiatrists' Press Office and Media BoothPress Office

The College Press Office is situated in the Exhibition Hall. Press releases will be issued throughout the conference, and media training for delegates will be provided at the adjacent Media Booth. If you want to find out more about the College's press and public education work and how to get involved, join us for a drinks reception by the Press Office from 5.30pm on Tuesday 22 June. All welcome.

Media Booth

Interested in working with the media? Then book yourself a 40-minute, one-to-one media training session run by a College member with extensive experience of working on TV, radio and in print. They will teach you how to define your core messages and deliver them effectively. The media booth has been set up to resemble a broadcasting studio, where you can hone your communication skills in a realistic, but totally non-scary atmosphere. The training will be tailor-made to your requirements and be completely confidential. To book your session, come to the media booth, situated next to the Press Office in the main exhibition hall.

St Andrew's Healthcare is the UK's largest mental health Charity, founded in 1838. Our unique range of specialist services have a strong reputation for quality and expertise in caring for the most challenging users of mental health services.

With over 700 beds across 3 locations, our portfolio includes the UK's first secure service for older women, a bespoke facility for men with ASD and opening this year, our new secure forensic mental health unit for deaf men.

In 2010 the Charity expands its services for men by opening purpose built developments in Nottingham and Northampton.
