

Maney* website news

Maney has introduced new service features to make things easier for our customers. Customers can now manage their accounts and subscriptions online in the 'My Account' area of the website www.maney.co.uk/index.php/login

Features include:

'About Me' section

- Create an online account using your Maney Customer Reference Number and check that your personal details are correct and up-to-date
- Change of mailing address? Log-in to update your details to ensure that you don't miss any issues of your Maney journals
- New email address? Log-in to add or change your email address and receive the latest news, offers and renewal reminders from Maney

'My Subscriptions' section

Review and renew your subscriptions online

- No need to call the Subscriptions team during office hours – renew at a time convenient to you using our secure internet server
- Log-in to see what journals you currently subscribe to and which have lapsed
- Renew all your subscriptions with just one click to take you through to the payment screen

To make full use of these added benefits simply create your account at www.maney.co.uk/index.php/login using your Maney Customer Reference Number which is detailed on your renewal notice.

If you cannot locate your Customer Reference Number, please contact Maney on subscriptions@maney.co.uk or +44 (0)113 386 8168.

---

This information is for subscribers of the following journals published by the Royal College of Psychiatrists:

- British Journal of Psychiatry
- Advances in Psychiatric Treatment
- The Psychiatrist
- International Psychiatry

For more information on these journals, please visit:

<http://www.rcpsych.ac.uk/journals>

*Maney Publishing is the company contracted by the College as their official subscription manager for journals.

(September 2010)

