

A New Charity - Foundations

Foundations, a new national charity aiming 'to provide relief from the impact of disordered eating, excessive exercise and poor body image and to provide specialist education for health professionals' is looking to appoint as a Trustee 'someone who brings to their work a spiritual, transpersonal perspective'. Anyone interest in filling this role should contact Julian Candy, Hon Secretary, via Sue Duncan at the College.