

POMH-UK is pleased to announce the following learning event organised by POMH-UK:

IMPROVING PRESCRIBING PRACTICE IN MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES: STRATEGIES FOR CHANGE

Wednesday 29th February 2012.

This is a free, all day learning event, funded by the Health Foundation and taking place at the Royal Society of Medicine, London.

The event will look at practical change interventions around prescribing in Trusts and will comprise of four sessions covering the following topics (speakers to be confirmed):

- Prescribing PRN antipsychotics
- Supporting Lithium monitoring in clinical practice
- Closing the gap – monitoring of metabolic syndrome
- Antipsychotic prescribing in dementia

Venue details

29th February 2012

10:00 – 16.30

Main Lecture Theatre
Royal Society of Medicine
One Wimpole Street
London
W1G 0AE

How to book

Go to www.rcpsych.ac.uk/pomh/events for more details and to register.

We are offering places to POMH member Trusts in the first instance and therefore would be grateful if, in your capacity as POMH lead for your Trust, you would be willing to coordinate expressions of interest within your Trust by circulating the details of this event to relevant staff and registering their interest online via our online registration form (www.rcpsych.ac.uk/pomh/events) by 30th September 2011.

Contact email: pomh-uk@cru.rcpsych.ac.uk