

Pakistan In Need: rebuilding lives and communities

On behalf of The Institute of Psychiatry at the Maudsley, Lady Rawlings, Chairman of Council at King's College London, and International Mental Health at the IoP invite you to a 'rapid response' lunch time session at the Institute of Psychiatry, De Crespigny Park, Denmark Hill on Monday 19th December.

In the earthquake on October 8th, over 50,000 died, thousands were injured and 3 million lost their homes. Pakistan urgently needs more help to address the health crises, both physical and mental, that are unfolding in the wake of this tragedy. All our speakers have direct experience of working on the disaster relief programmes. Allan Bell, operations manager, Merlin (DEC Charity); Professor Murad Khan, Department of Psychiatry, Aga Khan University, Karachi; Dr Sohail Qureshi, British Pakistani Psychiatrists Association; Mr Shamim Khan, Department of Surgery, Guys Hospital; Mr Nadeem Nayeem, A&E, Lewisham Hospital, Dr Athula Sumathipala/Shamil Wanigaratne, UK Sri Lanka Trauma Group.
