Part 2 – individual's consent

I give my consent for this material to appear in APT and associated publications. I have seen and read the material to be published.

I understand the following:

(1) The material will be published without my name being included and every attempt will be made to ensure my anonymity. I understand, however, that complete anonymity cannot be guaranteed. It is possible that somebody somewhere – perhaps, for example, a relative or somebody who looked after me if I was in hospital – may identify me.

(2) The material may be published in the monthly APT, which has a circulation of around 2800 and goes worldwide. The journal goes mainly to doctors but is seen by many non-doctors, including journalists.

(3) The material will also be placed on the APT's website. Although the main users of this are doctors, the website may be viewed by anybody and is available worldwide.

(4) The material may also be used in books, article collections or educational materials published by the Royal College of Psychiatrists.

(5) The material will not be used for advertising.
