

Treasures Of The Universe

By Michael Levy

Life is an adventure ...with Earth as a playground,
Everywhere we look...treasures can be found,
A ruby in a rose... diamonds glistening in a lake,
Minds filled with beauty...in dreams or awake.
Spiritual beings in human form,
Pearls in eyes...seeing tranquility and calm,
Floating on emerald sea...golden oceans so vast,
Silver vapors in the clouds... platinum breezes as the mast.
Every rock holds beauty in its vein,
Every leaf a different color...no shape the same,
Flowing shrubs bursting... with a glowing love,
God sets the scene... everything is a hand in his glove.
All joined together ...one poem in a uni-verse,
Every breath of air...is worth a kings purse,
Jewels of joy...bliss from pole to pole,
Magnificent enchantment...in our universe-soul.
