

20 May 2010

Northern Ireland Division
Clifton House-BCS
2 North Queen Street
BELFAST
BT15 1EQ

Tel: 028 9027 8793
Fax: 028 9031 2461

Dear Principal/Pastoral Care Officer

Following the success of previous events we are delighted to announce that our 2010 Celebration of World Mental Health Day will take place on Friday 8 October in The Odyssey Cinema, The Odyssey, Belfast, from 10.00am to 2.30pm.

The format of the day will include:

- Schools presentations on mental health topics (suitable for Year 11 onwards)
- BBC Radio 1's Sunday Surgery resident Dr. Stuart Flanagan to compère
- Lunch provided for pupils and teachers
- Ways to keep you in good mental health-African drumming/Bollywood dancing
- Free educational resource pack for teachers
- Mental health exhibitors
- Schools Free Prize Draw

For tickets please complete and return the form below. We look forward to meeting you on the day!

Yours sincerely

Dr Peter Sloan MRCPsych
Public Education Officer - NI Division

SCHOOLS FREE PRIZE DRAW

For your school's chance to win a Nintendo Wii, answer the following question:

What is the link on the Royal College of Psychiatrists website to "Mental health information for all"? The answer can be found at www.rcpsych.ac.uk/WMHD

Terms and Conditions

Pupils should write their answers on the entrance ticket and present on arrival to the World Mental Health Day event. The first correct entry on the day will win a Nintendo Wii for their school. The judges decision will be final.

REPLY SLIP: To: Lisa Losty - Fax: 028 90312461 or to the address above.

I(teacher's name and school) would like.....tickets for the 2010 Celebration of World Mental Health Day at W5, Belfast on Friday 8th October.
Please advise any special dietary or other requirements:.....