
Rules for Entry for RCPsych Awards 2022

1. Each entry should be no more than the word limit specified in each section of the relevant entry forms. Completed entries should be sent by email to membership.operations@rcpsych.ac.uk, or by post to Membership Operations, Royal College of Psychiatrists, 21 Prescot Street, London E1 8BB.
2. All nominations will be treated as confidential. However, the Royal College of Psychiatrists reserves the right to publish extracts from the entry summaries submitted. Information supplied in the supporting material will remain confidential.
3. No charge will be made for entries for the Awards. Details of the Awards Ceremony and information on how to obtain tickets will follow in due course.
4. Please note that if you are nominating someone other than yourself, the nominee must have given their permission to be nominated prior to the entry being submitted.
5. The judges reserve the right to withhold any award should it be felt that the entries are below the required standard.
6. The chair of the judging panel reserves the right to cast any deciding vote, should the need arise. The verdict of the judging panel is final and no correspondence can be entered into.
7. Entries may be based on activities undertaken from January 2021 to December 2021. Activities undertaken outside these dates will not be considered, except where otherwise indicated.
8. All entries must include full name and valid contact details.
9. No materials submitted will be returned. The Royal College of Psychiatrists is not responsible for any lost or damaged entries.
10. Only nominations from Royal College of Psychiatrists members or associates of good standing will be considered.
11. Nominated teams must contain at least one psychiatrist who is a College member or associate.
12. Previous winners cannot be nominated again in the same category.
13. Nominees can only be nominated once in each category. If a nominee becomes aware that they are to be nominated twice they should take steps to prevent separate entry forms being submitted. If not, the membership team will request that nominators consolidate their nomination forms to ensure fairness of judging.
