Food and Drink

Enjoy a range of hospitality menus designed to complement your meetings and events at Prescot Street. Our award-winning in-house caterers, Houston & Hawkes, create thoughtfully balanced menus using fresh, seasonal and nutritious ingredients to support both productivity and enjoyment.

As the UK's first B Corp-certified caterer, Houston & Hawkes is committed to sustainable sourcing, championing local suppliers, promoting biodiversity and supporting its people and communities through meaningful charitable initiatives.

"The catering was excellent and very well received by our guests — a real highlight of the day."

First floor

The first floor auditorium is purpose-built for high-profile events, from keynote speeches and conferences to award ceremonies. A dedicated AV and communications hub supports seamless production, while high-definition cameras, professional audio and robust connectivity ensure in-person and remote audiences feel equally engaged.

The floor also features four flexible meeting rooms, which can be combined via a ceiling track system to increase capacity, alongside a 54-person seminar room. A light filled mezzanine with casual seating provides an ideal breakout space for networking and informal discussions.

"Everything we needed was available, and even a last-minute change to a presentation was handled without any issues."

Ground floor

The ground floor provides a more intimate setting, ideal for networking receptions, private dining and smaller executive meetings, blending warmth, heritage and flexibility.

Anchoring the space is a large meeting room, frequently used as a boardroom or dining room for catered events, which can also be partitioned into smaller rooms as required. Located at the end of the members' lounge, the impressive Antiquarian Library offers a distinctive and intimate setting for private dining.

Additional facilities include two further meeting rooms, a multi faith room and compact focus rooms along the hallway. All key spaces are equipped with high-definition cameras, professional audio and reliable connectivity, ensuring seamless engagement for both in-person and remote attendees. A cloakroom and hot desk area complete the ground floor offering.
