

WHEN THE CLAPPING STOPS

Exploring the psychological effect of the pandemic on frontline workers

1st April 2021 12:30 – 16:30

#RCPsychNY

12:30-12:40	Dr Paul Walker Chair, Northern & Yorkshire Division	Welcome and Conference Introduction
12:40-13:10	Dr Adrian James President of the Royal College of Psychiatrists	Presidential Priorities and the Pandemic. Pres James will discuss the priorities for his three-year term which focus on ensuring equity between physical and mental health, championing diversity, supporting the workforce, and putting sustainability at the heart of all that we do. He will reflect on the College's work during the pandemic and how it will continue to support its members going forward.
13:10-13:40	Dr Richard Cree Consultant in Anaesthesia and Intensive Care Medicine	Pandemic: The Frontline Experience. My experience of working in an increasingly busy Intensive Care Unit during the COVID-19 pandemic.
13:40 – 14:25	Sarah Hopper & Vicky Jervis Professional Lead for Psychology /Consultant Clinical Psychologist	Painted Rocks and Ice Pops: Taking Psychological First Aid to the Frontline The presentation will focus on the wellbeing needs of frontline health care staff during the Covid-19 pandemic, as well as offering some personal reflections on being part of a collaboration between two neighbouring NHS trusts to support frontline staff throughout this time.
14:25 – 14:35	Dr Sunil Nodiyal Vice Chair, Northern & Yorkshire Division	Poster Prize Winner Presentations
14:35 – 14:55 Comfort Break
14:55-15:05	Dr Baxi Sinha Joint Academic Secretary	Welcome back Poster Prize Winner Presentations
15:05 – 15:25	Hayley Hall Patient Representative	Too numb to clap Personal reflections on the loss of a parent to Covid-19.
15:25 – 15:55	Dr Rachel Bloomfield GP Speciality Trainee Year 2	Balancing patient care and clinical training during the pandemic. A trainee's experience of the challenges of meeting training needs whilst providing patient care during a pandemic.
15:55-16:10	Dr Marisa Dias clinical academic psychiatrist	Together we are stronger Highlighting the importance of working together with different European partners, and patient and family representatives to promote the prioritisation of people with severe mental illness for vaccination. Why it is important this group of people is vaccinated and what we can do.
16:10-16:25	Nicola Rea Staff Nurse and Senior Research Nurse	Nursing through a Pandemic: Professionals not superheroes Personal reflections of nursing in the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) during the first wave of the COVID-19 pandemic and latterly the psychological impact on nursing beyond the ICU.
16:25-16:30	Dr Sumeet Gupta Joint Academic Secretary	Closing remarks