

Annual Medical Education Conference

Wednesday 18 – Thursday 19 May 2022 | online

Conference Programme

Day One: Wednesday 18 May 2022
Session 1: Chaired by Dr Charlotte Wilson-Jones
9:00-9:30	Population, Policy and Pills: Personalising Care, A Challenge for Medical Educators Dr Subodh Dave, RCPsych Dean
9:30-10:00	Addressing Health Inequalities – Role of Medical Education Dr Peter Byrne
10:00-10:30	Optimising validity: MRCPsych Examination developments Dr Ian Hall, Chief Examiner
10:30-11:00	Morning Break and poster viewing
Session 2: Chaired by Dr Vivek Agrawal
11:00-11:35	Implementing Direct Observed Examination Skills (DOES) for psychiatry undergraduate teaching Dr Emma Barrow and Dr Sambavi Navaratnarajah
11:35-12:10	Beyond Zoom Gloom Dr Rachel Swain, Dr Abigail Swerdlow and Dr Yasmin Al-Asady
12:10-13:00	Lunch break and poster viewing
Session 3: Chaired by Dr Subodh Dave,
13:00-13:25	Medical Directors and Medical Education Dr Derek Tracy
13:25-14:00	Medical education as a tool to develop uncertainty tolerance in doctors-in-training Dr Jason Hancock
14:00-14:30	Keynote: Dr Navina Evans, Chair and Chief Executive, Health Education England
14:30-15:00	Afternoon Break and poster viewing
Session 4: Chaired by Dr Helen Bruce
15:00-15:35	A novel teaching approach in North East London to deliver the new UK Foundation Programme Curriculum 2021 Dr Fergus Lewis and Dr Luca Polledri

15:35-16:10	Can we talk please?: enabling a helpful conversation between trainees and trainers about developmental feedback Dr Mustafa Alachkar and Dr Swapna Kongara
16:10-16:45	Enhanced Mental Health training experience for GP trainees - Our experience of facilitating a large cohort of GP+ trainees in 2021 Dr Rebeca Martinez and Dr Indira Vinjamuri
16:45-17:10	Trainer of the Year – Connecting Education and Training to Patient Outcomes: The Role of Local Education Providers Dr Roshelle Ramkisson
17:10-17:15	Concluding remarks Dr Subodh Dave, RCPsych Dean

Day Two: Thursday 19 May 2021

Session 1: Chaired by Dr Helen Bruce

9:00-9:15	Curriculum Update Dr John Russell
9:15-9:50	EDI and CESR: how can we "de-other" the alternative route to CCT? Dr Julie Miller and Dr Panos Preevezanos
9:50-10:25	Fellows in Medical Education: Better together Dr Yasmin Al-Asady, Dr Abigail Swerdlow and Dr Rachel Swain
10:25-11:00	What London Can Teach Us About Psychiatry: A Humanities-Based Undergraduate Psychiatry Optional Module Dr Lucinda Richards and Dr Mandip Jheeta, Emelia Pasternak-Albert, Binit Gurung and Ella Bauwens
11:00-11:30	Morning break and poster viewing

Session 2: Chaired by Dr Roshelle Ramkisson

11:30-12:05	The Royal College Of Psychiatrists Physician Associate Inceptorship Programme: Using Education To Integrate New Roles Into Pre-Existing Multidisciplinary Teams Dr Pranav Mahajan and Dr Chris Kenworthy
12:05-12:40	Raising Concerns with Training: What are the barriers for trainees? Dr Shay-Anne Pantall, Dr Sambavi Navaratnarajah and Dr Sabrina Hasnaoui
12:40-13:40	Lunch break and poster viewing

Session 3: Chaired by Dr Roshelle Ramkisson
13:40-14:20	Co-production in Medical Education – a Pipe Dream? Simon Rose, Dr Thomas Nicoll and Dr Arthita Das
14:20-14:50	Teaching Health Inequalities: Lessons from North-West Dr Seri Abraham and Dr Mrityunjai Kumar
14:50-15:20	Afternoon break and poster viewing
Session 4: Chaired by Dr Charlotte Wilson-Jones
15:20-16:20	Enhancing Psychiatry Risk Assessment Teaching for Medical Students using an online format - Clinical Skills Role Play Dr Georgina Edgerley Harris and Dr Charlotte Turner
16:20-16:30	Concluding remarks Dr Subodh Dave, RCPsych Dean