

Historical, Scientific and Clinical Perspectives on Complex PTSD and other ICD-11 Trauma Related Disorders

Friday 28 January 2022
9:00-17:05

Time	Session
9:00-12:45	Morning Session: Chaired by Dr Gordon Barclay and Dr Nuri Gene-Cos
09:00-09:15	Introduction
09:15-10:15	The relevance of dissociation to the diagnosis of Schizophrenia: A secret history Professor Andrew Moskowitz
10:15-11:15	Neuroimaging Trauma-related Dissociation: providing evidence for the trauma-dissociation relationship and clinical relevance Dr Simone Reinders
11:15-11:45	Morning Break
11:45-12:45	Learning from our patients/experts by experience Anne, Amanda and Rachel
12:45-13:35	Lunch
13:35-17:05	Afternoon Session: Chaired by Dr Gordon Barclay and Dr Nuri Gene-Cos
13:35-14:35	Symptoms and background neuroscience in Complex PTSD, illustrated with clinical cases Dr Nuri Gené-Cos
14:35-15:35	The clinical relevance of seeing common CMHT presentations through an ICD-11 lens Dr Gordon Barclay
15:35-16:05	Afternoon Break
16:05-17:05	Plenary Session Dr Nuri Gené-Cos Dr Gordon Barclay Professor Andrew Moskowitz (Dr Simone Reinders)
17:05	End