

Academic Psychiatry Trainees Conference 2022

Thursday 7 April 2022 | Online

Programme

09.30am	Welcome Dr Oli Sparasci, ST4 in Old Age Psychiatry, Pennine Care NHS Foundation Trust
	Plenary 1 Chair: Dr Oli Sparasci
09.35am	What your faculty is doing to support trainees Professor Vivienne Curtis, Consultant Psychiatrist and Academic Training Lead, HEE, Head of School of Psychiatry
10.05am	Panel discussion: Help! I don't fit neatly into the training system Dr Victoria Wing, University of Newcastle Dr Nick Donnelly, University of Bristol
11.05am	Break and poster viewing
	Plenary 2 Chair: Dr Oli Sparasci
11.35am	Mental Health Research Ms Devora Kestel, Director MSD, World Health Organisation
12.05pm	Why should trainees consider collaborations? Dr Jack Underwood, University of Cardiff
12.35pm	Routes to publication Dr Kate Adlington, Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience (IoPPN)
1.05pm	Lunch and poster viewing
	Plenary 3 Chair: Dr Oli Sparasci
2.05pm	Panel discussion: alternative routes to a PhD Dr Konstantinos Ioannidis, Cambridgeshire and Peterborough NHS Foundation Trust Dr Dheeraj Rai, University of Bristol Dr Kate Saunders, University of Oxford
3.10pm	Break and poster viewing
	Plenary 4 Chair: Dr Oli Sparasci
3.40pm	Public engagement and outreach in the post COVID-19 world Ms Josie Waters, Alzheimer's Research UK
4.10pm	Applying for your own grants: why, how and where? Professor Anne Lingford-Hughes, Head, Centre for Psychiatry and Professor of Addiction Biology at Imperial College London

4.40pm	Getting help: starting to supervise students
	Dr Lindsey Sinclair, University of Bristol
5.10pm	Close of Conference