

The Effect of a Patient Homicide on Clinicians
Royal College of Psychiatrists
Prescot Street, London
 18 October 2022

8.45-9.25	Registration
9.30am	Welcome Dr Jo O'Reilly
9.35am	Introduction Dr Adrian James
9.50am	Session 1: The effect of homicide on clinicians- the evidence Prof Gill Mezey, Prof Helen Killaspy and Ayesha Hussain
10.20am	Homicide and its aftermath Dr Gwen Adshead
10.50am	What we have found out about homicide from running a suicide and homicide group for consultants Dr Rachel Gibbons, Dr Phillipa Greenfield, Dr Nisha Shah and Prof Helen Killaspy
11.20am-11.40am	Break
11.45am	Personal testimony: short film Dr Mark Salter
12.15pm	Roundtable/panel: Disenfranchised grief and trauma Dr Gwen Adshead, Dr Mark Salter, Dr Smita Pandit and Dr Gill Mezey
12.55pm-1.45pm	Lunch Break
1.50pm	Session 3: Introduction to the Working group - what we hope to achieve – Pastoral Guidance for Mental Health Organisation

	Dr Rachel Gibbons and Dr Trevor Broughton
2.05pm	Breakout group to discuss the effects of Homicide and potential recommendations for mental health organisations Facilitated by RCPsych Psychotherapy Faculty Exec members Dr Jan Birtle, Dr Tennyson Lee, Dr James Lee-Davey , Dr Pamela Peters, Dr Miomir Milovanovic, Dr Maria Papanastassiou, Dr Swapna Kongara and Dr Diana Menzies
3.05pm-3.25pm	Break
3.30pm	Large Group
4.15pm	Plenary: Panel discussion
4.45pm	Close