

Virtual Annual Forum 2023

How to foster positive culture on acute inpatient wards?

Wednesday 15th November via Zoom

Programme

- 10:30 Welcome & Introduction
Dr Declan Hyland, Consultant General Adult Psychiatrist, Mersey Care NHS Foundation Trust
- 10:35 QNWA Project Update
Ruth Aheto, QNWA Deputy Programme Manager & Nicole McCarthy, QNWA Project Officer
- 10:45 What does it mean to be a Culturally Sensitive Ward?
Hameed Khan, QNWA Patient Representative
- 11:15 The Impact of Suicide on Inpatient Staff
Dr Rachel Gibbons, Consultant Psychiatrist and Chair of Effect of Suicide and Homicide on Psychiatrists, and Patient Safety Group
- 11:50 Break
- 12:00 De-briefing after SUIs in Acute Inpatient Settings – “To debrief or not to debrief: when are group interventions useful and how can we run these safely?”
Dr Harriet Conniff, Lead Clinical Psychologist for Staff Health & Wellbeing & Dr Zoe Berger, Consultant Clinical Psychologist Head of Psychological Therapies
- 12:35 Breakout Rooms – reflection on AM session talks
- 12:50 Lunch
- 13:15 Title: TBC Theme: Tackling racism and racist incidents
Dr Raj Mohan, Consultant Psychiatrist, South London and Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust & Joint Presidential Lead for Race and Equality at RCPsych
- 13:50 Break
- 14:00 De-briefs in Acute Inpatient Care – Experience of co-ordinating a trust wide service of post-incident debriefing following serious incidents.
Dr Emma Williams, Clinical Psychologist, Junction 17, Inpatient CAMHS, Greater Manchester Mental Health
- 14:35 Developing a Positive Acute Inpatient Service – reflections from a triangulation perspective
Julie Salt, QNWA Carer Representative & Amanda Simpson, Associate Director for Adult Acute Services Navigo
- 15:10 Breakout Rooms – reflections on PM session talks
- 15:25 Closing Remarks

Join the conversation on twitter @rcpsychCCQI #QNWA 