

QN-CRHTT Annual Forum September 5th 2024

Draft Programme

9:00	Tea, Coffee, and Refreshments There will be drinks and refreshments available for attendees who arrive from 9AM.
10:00	Chair's Welcome TBC
10:10	QN-CRHTT Update Pipp Nunn, Programme Manager
10:25	Presenting an NHSE funded project completed via the Psychological Professions Network South East (PPN-SE) focusing on developing psychologically informed crisis resolution and home treatment teams. Laura Goody, Principal Clinical Psychologist, Oxford Crisis and Home Treatment Team (Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust) Co-Chair of the Crisis Community of Practice, Psychological Professions Network, South East England, Dr Bree Macdonald, Consultant Clinical Psychologist and Professional Lead for Psychological Services in West Sussex, Co-Chair Crisis Community of Practice, Psychological Professions Network, South East England.
11:05	Break
11:15	Admission Alternatives - crisis services working with a VCSE organisation to create alternatives to hospital admission. Lauren Oliver, Team Manager/Admission Alternative Lead, Jessica McAuley, Registered Mental Health Nurse/Clinical Lead/Non-Medical Prescriber, East Home Treatment Team, Cornwall Partnership NHS Foundation Trust
12:00	Poster Presentations
12:15	Lunch
13:00	Workshop sessions – These will run concurrently
	Reinventing patient and carer involvement - it's time to think outside of the box! Ingrid Baldwin, Patient and Carer Representative, The Royal College of Psychiatrists	The Personalised Progress Pathway: development and implementation of a co-produced pathway in a Home Treatment Team for people with complex emotional difficulties in crisis. Chloe Parkin, Developmental Consultant Nurse, Lauren Oliver, Team Manager/Admission Alternative Lead, Yasemin Demir, Clinical Associate Psychologist, Jake Wood, Clinical Associate Psychologist, East Home Treatment Team, Cornwall Partnership NHS Foundation Trust
14:00	The Role of Assistant Psychologists Working in Crisis Resolution and Home Treatment Teams. Summer Jones-Webster, Trainee Clinical Psychologist, Aimee Williams, Assistant Psychologist, Bobby Farmer, Assistant Psychologist, Rosie Leonard Trainee Clinical

	Psychologist, Dr Siobhan Cox, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Dr Nicola Thomas, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Hywel Dda University Health Board CRHTTs and Adult Psychology Mental Health Service, Hywel Dda University Health Board (H DUHB)
14:45	Break
15:00	How to manage/meet the needs of patients who present with personality disorders or emotional regulation difficulties in crisis and finding individualised/unique ways of keeping them safe. Eshan Vadgama, Patient and Carer Representative, The Royal College of Psychiatrists
15:45	A service evaluation exploring staff and service user's experiences of introducing Psychology into home treatment teams - 18 months on. Dr Nicole Hudson, Principal Clinical Psychologist, Neusha Golshan, Clinical Associate Psychologist, Chloe Allen, Trainee Clinical Psychologist, Kensington, Chelsea and Westminster Home Treatment Teams, Central and North West London NHS Foundation Trust
16:30	Feedback and Closing Remarks
16:45	Close