

Working in rural, remote, & coastal settings: medical education and mental health opportunities

Thursday 25th January 2024

16:00 – 17:00

Via Zoom – will be recorded

Click here to register

Time	Session
16:00	Welcome & Introductions Dr Beena Rajkumar, Director of Medical Education
16:15	From London to Lincolnshire – A training journey Dr Toby Greenall, Consultant Psychiatrist
16:25	Living our best training life - Remote and Rural Dr Rosemary Gordan, ST6, & Dr Brooke Marron, CT2
16:40	Guiding Principles: Rural Psychiatry Roadmap 2021–31 The Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists
16:55	Q&A Session
17:00	End

Overview

This webinar will showcase the medical education and mental health opportunities of working in rural, remote, and coastal settings. We have doctors of various grades sharing their experiences, joys, challenges, and unique opportunities of working in these locations. We welcome all individuals who want to learn more about working and living in a rural remote and coastal setting. There will be an opportunity to ask questions at the end of the webinar.