

RCPsych Breaking Boundaries: Planet, Mind and Action

Date: Friday 27 February 2026

Venue: RCPsych Prescot Street, London

Time	Session
9.00 – 9.30am	Registration Refreshments served
9.30 – 9.40am	Introduction and welcome Dr Kirsten Shukla, Child and adolescent psychiatrist and Dr Sue Crimlisk, Child and adolescent psychiatrist Satish Kumar, Environment activist, Founder and Editor Emeritus at Resurgence & Ecologist magazine.
Session 1: State of the climate and ecological emergency Chair: Dr Kirsten Shukla
09.40– 10.05am	Update on the science Dr Abi Perrin, Climate & Nature scientist, communicator & activist
10.05 – 10.25am	What every psychiatrist should know about the climate crisis Dr Amelia Cussans, ST 5 trainee in adult psychiatry, member of Psych declares and Planetary Health and Sustainability Committee (PHSC) of the Royal College of Psychiatrists
10.25 – 10.50am	The commercial determinants of the climate crisis Dr May Van Schalkwyk, Public Health Researcher, University of Edinburgh
10.50 – 11.00am	Defend our Juries Dr Clive Dolphin, Defend our Juries Spokesperson
11.00 – 11.15am	Q&A session
11.15 – 11.30am	Break
Session 2: Climate crisis conversations Chair: Dr Sue Crimlisk
11.30 – 12.00pm	Climate crisis conversations Caroline Hickman, Psychotherapist and globally recognised researcher and author
12.00 – 12.45pm	Panel discussion and Q&A session Dr Pete Knapp, Lived experience Dr Juliette Brown, Old Age Psychiatrist, member of Psych Declares and climate activist. Dr Ching Li, Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and member of Psych Declares. Dr Amelia Cussans, Adult Psychiatrist, member of the PHSC and Psych Declares.

The RCPsych is an inclusive organisation with over 21,000 members who have a diverse range of views, which we look to represent across our programmes. To further open dialogue, scientific discovery and enrich learning, we provide our members with the opportunity to hear from a range of professionals. The speakers, panellists and participants views and comments are their own and not the established views of the College.

	Dr Tom Nutting, Adult Psychiatrist and Medical Psychotherapist, member of the PHSC and Psych Declares.
12.45 – 1.45pm	Lunch
Session 3: How to respond to the climate and ecological crisis? Chairs: Dr Kirsten Shukla and Dr Sue Crimlisk
1.45pm – 2.10pm	The Planetary Health and Sustainability Committee of the Royal College of Psychiatrists <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Overview of the PHSC – Dr Daniel Harwood, Chair of PHSC, Older Adults Consultant Psychiatrist. 2. Nature matters – Dr Shuo Zhang, Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist, PHSC and member of Psych Declares. 3. Eco CAMHS – Dr Catriona Mellor, Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist, PHSC, member of Psych Declares. 4. Psychiatry training curriculum - Dr Philippa Clery, Psychiatrist, PHSC, member of Psych Declares. 5. Heatwave project – Dr Philippa Clery
2.10 – 2.20pm	Campaigning for institutional change Dr Amelia Cussans
2.20 – 2.35pm	Geopsychiatry Dr Santosh Mudholkar, Consultant Forensic Psychiatrist with an interest in global health.
2.35 – 2.55pm	History of activism - past and present Dr Lynne Jones OBE, Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist, writer, relief worker, consultant to WHO and Unicef and member of Psych Declares.
2.55 – 3.25pm	Experiences of activism - a conversation Chaired by Dr Clive Dolphin: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Members of the public as activists – Clive Dolphin, Defend our Juries 2. Psychiatrists as activists – Dr Juliette Brown and Dr Tom Nutting 3. People with lived experience as activists – Dr Pete Knapp
3.25 – 3.35pm	Q&A session
3.35 – 3.50pm	Break
Session 4: Reflective workshop and outcomes from the conference Chairs: Dr Kirsten Shukla and Dr Sue Crimlisk
3.50 – 4.45pm	Reflective workshop – breakout into smaller groups Using creative materials, participants are invited to reflect on the day and their emotional responses to what they have heard. Facilitated by Dr Marion Neffgen, Consultant Medical Psychotherapist, member of Psych Declares, and members of the Medical Psychotherapy Faculty Climate &

The RCPsych is an inclusive organisation with over 21,000 members who have a diverse range of views, which we look to represent across our programmes. To further open dialogue, scientific discovery and enrich learning, we provide our members with the opportunity to hear from a range of professionals. The speakers, panellists and participants views and comments are their own and not the established views of the College.

	Sustainability working group, Dr Pam Peters, Dr Louise Robinson, Dr Dasal Abayaratne and Dr Nora Gribbin.
4.45 – 5.00pm	Closing remarks and the outcomes from the conference Dr Sue Crimlisk, Dr Kirsten Shukla and Fran Sowerbutts, Medical student
5.00pm	Close

The RCPsych is an inclusive organisation with over 21,000 members who have a diverse range of views, which we look to represent across our programmes. To further open dialogue, scientific discovery and enrich learning, we provide our members with the opportunity to hear from a range of professionals. The speakers, panellists and participants views and comments are their own and not the established views of the College.