Trainee-led quality improvement

This is the first in a series of monthly webinars that will showcase quality improvement work from across a range of faculties and divisions. This session will focus on trainee-led quality improvement, with examples of QI projects led by trainees. There will also be a discussion with trainees and the psychiatric trainees committee about the role of trainees in QI, and how this can be supported and developed.

Trainee-led projects:

1. Dr Chris O’Shea, Forensic Psychiatry Registrar, Royal Edinburgh Hospital

2. Dr Hannah Campling, CT2 (Whittington Health NHS Trust) ; Dr Aubrey Jones, CT2 (Camden and Islington NHS Foundation Trust)

3. Dr Ross Runciman, General Adult/Old Age Psychiatry Registrar, Gloucestershire Health and Care NHS Foundation Trust

Panel discussion- facilitated by Dr Amar Shah, Chair, QI committee, RCPsych; Dr Deepa Bagepalli Krishnan, General Adult Psychiatry Registrar, PTC QI committee representative
