

Monday 20 June

	Pentland	Sidlaw	Fintry	Cromdale	Lomond	Moffat and Lammermuir	Lowther	Menteith	Harris	Student and trainee lounge
8.00am – 10.00am	Registration Strathblane hall
8.30am – 9.30am				RCPsych Annual General Meeting
10.00am – 11.15am	S1 Smoking and mental disorder - opportunities for action	MC2 Launch of the Lancet Psychiatry Commission on intimate partner violence and mental health	S2 How should we respond to the climate crisis?	MC3 'Understanding safety as a co-created entity: a creative conversation on fear, power and the meaning of safety'	MC1 Understanding and treating death anxiety
11.15am – 11.45am	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
11.45am – 11.50am	Welcome address Dr Shubulade Smith and Professor Ian Jones, Congress Co-Chairs, Dr Regi Alexander, Associate Dean for Advanced Learning and Conference				Keynote overflow room
11.50am – 12.20pm	KN1 President's opening lecture Dr Adrian James, President, Royal College of Psychiatrists				Keynote overflow room
12.20pm – 12.50pm	KN2 Suicide prevention: future priorities and the impact of Covid Professor Louis Appleby, Professor of Psychiatry, Manchester University				Keynote overflow room
12.50pm – 1.00pm	KN3 Chief Executive's address Mr Paul Rees MBE, Chief Executive Officer, Royal College of Psychiatrists				Keynote overflow room
1.00pm – 1.50pm	Lunch Served in Lennox					Rapid fire poster presentations	Fringe: SAS doctors lunch		Fringe: Lifestyle and self-care	Meet the PTC
1.55pm – 3.10pm	S3 Refugee and asylum-seeker mental health	S6 The Advancing Mental Health Equality Collaborative: using a quality improvement approach to improve mental health care, support and treatment for people at risk of experiencing inequalities in the UK	S4 Radically open dialectical behaviour therapy - theory and practice	S5 Severe COVID anxiety: aetiology, prognosis and treatment	TC1 Treatment resistant psychosis 1
3.10pm – 3.20pm	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
3.20pm – 4.35pm	S8 Student mental health in higher and further education - need for a new approach	S7 Understanding and managing serious risk to mothers and their infants in the perinatal period	S9 Alcohol and suicidal acts: new research findings and practice implications	MC4 Delusions of perfection - the problem with serious incident inquiries: What can we do to change the investigation process and really learn from tragic events?	TC1 Treatment resistant psychosis 2
4.35pm – 5.05pm	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
5.05pm – 5.35pm	KN4 We know more about schizophrenia than people think Professor Stephen Lawrie				Keynote overflow room
5.35pm – 6.05pm	KN5 Precision psychiatry in perinatal mental health: using innovative approaches to improve patient outcomes Dr Samantha Meltzer Brody, Assad Meymandi Distinguished Professor and Chair, Director, UNC Center for Women's Mood Disorders, Department of Psychiatry, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, North Carolina, USA				Keynote overflow room
6.05pm - 6.35pm	KN6 The drugs don't work – lessons from the management of neuropsychiatric symptoms in dementia Professor Sube Banerjee, Executive Dean and Professor of Dementia, Faculty of Health, University of Plymouth				Keynote overflow room
6.35pm – 7.35pm	Fringe: Debate - Digital Psychiatry: The next 180 years 0930 clinic appointment with Skynet? This house believes that the RCPsych should embrace Artificial Intelligence and Big Data in guiding clinical decision making and service development			Presentation ceremony

Tuesday 21 June

	Pentland	Sidlaw	Fintry	Cromdale	Lomond	Moffat and Lammermuir	Lowther	Menteith	Harris	Student and trainee lounge
8.00am – 9.00am	Registration Strathblane hall
8.00am – 8.45am					Fringe: How to write a book or chapter
9.00am – 9.30am	KN7 Mental health of children, young people and emerging adults in the time of COVID Professor Tamsin Ford, Professor of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, University of Cambridge				Keynote overflow room
9.30am – 10.00am	KN8 Dr Roch Cantwell, Consultant Perinatal Psychiatrist, Lead Clinician Perinatal Mental Health Scotland				Keynote overflow room
10.00am – 10.30am	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
10.30am – 11.45am	S10 Overmedication of people with intellectual disabilities: time for action	S12 The increasing impact of cannabis on the incidence of psychosis	S11 The audio and visual recording of mental health consultations by patients - clinical, ethical, and legal considerations	TC2 Core skills in neuropsychiatry	S13 Complement pathway dysregulation in schizophrenia; from biomarkers to potential target for novel therapies
11.45am – 11.55am	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
11.55am – 1.10pm	S16 New advances in understanding and treating impulsivity	MC5 The art of psychopharmacology	S15 Substance misuse treatment: Looking beyond the clinic door	TC2 Chronic neurological disease management	S14 The powerful destructive effect of suicide. How to help those bereaved, including families, friends and clinicians
1.10pm – 2.10pm	Lunch Served in Lennox					Rapid fire poster presentations	Fringe: Examiners lunch	Fringe: How to submit a successful Congress programme proposal	Fringe: 1:1 coaching sessions	Meet the College Officers
2.10pm – 2.40pm	KN9 On psychiatry as a profession Dr Gwen Adshead, Consultant Forensic Psychiatrist and Psychotherapist West London Trust				Keynote overflow room
2.40pm – 3.10pm	KN10 What is schizophrenia? Insights from genomics Professor James T.R. Walters, Director, MRC Centre for Neuropsychiatric Genetics and Genomics, Cardiff University				Keynote overflow room
3.10pm – 3.40pm	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
3.40pm – 4.55pm	S19 An update on therapeutic strategies and clinical trials in dementia	MC6 Neuroscience based Nomenclature: a new beginning for psychopharmacology	S17 Top ten facts every psychiatrist should know	TC2 Clinical updates	S18 Supporting people who present to the emergency department following self-harm - experience from Ireland's National Clinical Programme
4.55pm – 5.05pm	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
5.05pm – 6.20pm	S22 The role of genetics in clinical practice	S21 Providing a perinatal service in a women's prison: assessment and treatment of complex cases	S23 Linking body and brain in neurodivergence: research findings relevant to clinical practice and improving health disparities	TC2 The emergency room	S20 New research in the psychopharmacology of bipolar disorders
6.30pm – 7.45pm				Fringe: Mindmasters			Fringe: Reducing the impact of the emotional effect of suicide on clinicians
8.00pm	Student and trainee dinner Tigerlily, 125 George Street, Edinburgh

Wednesday 22 June

	Pentland	Sidlaw	Fintry	Cromdale	Lomond	Moffat and Lammermuir	Lowther	Menteith	Harris	Student and trainee lounge
8.00am – 9.00am	Registration Strathblane hall
8.00am – 8.45am				Fringe: Working towards better research integrity for you, me and everybody					Fringe: Poetry/Haiku
9.00am – 9.30am	KN11 The future of psychiatry in the U.S. and beyond Dr Rebecca Brendel, President Elect, American Psychiatric Association				Keynote overflow room
9.30am – 10.00am	KN12 Mental health – the Scottish Government's priorities as we recover from the pandemic Mr Kevin Stewart MSP, Minister for Mental Wellbeing and Social Care				Keynote overflow room
10.00am – 10.30am	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
10.30am – 11.45am	MC7 Help! I've been invited to peer review!	MC8 Understanding the Family Court if you're not an expert witness – a session for clinicians of all grades	S26 New treatment targets in psychosis: from neurobiology to clinic	S25 Public mental health: a College priority and new Implementation Centre	S24 Engaging trainees in leading Quality Improvement
11.45am – 11.55am	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
11.55am – 1.10pm	S28 Mapping the current provision of UK graduate psychiatry education: best practice and lessons learnt	S29 Responsibility, judgement and ethics: suicide and criminal justice	S30 Everything you always wanted to know about lithium* (*but did not know whom to ask)	MC9 Screaming in the night	S27 Psychological and somatic treatments in pregnancy: some recent developments
1.10pm – 2.10pm	Lunch Served in Lennox					Rapid fire poster presentations	Fringe: Retired members lunch		Fringe: 1:1 coaching sessions	Meet the Chief Examiner
2.10pm – 2.40pm	KN13 A global perspective on racism and mental health Dr David Williams PhD MPH, Florence and Laura Norman Professor of Public Health, Chair, Department of Social and Behavioural Science and Professor of African and African American Studies and of Sociology, Harvard				Keynote overflow room
2.40pm – 3.10pm	KN14 The ICD-11 classification of mental, behavioural or neurodevelopmental disorders: evidence, innovation, and implementation Dr Geoffrey Reed, Department of Psychiatry, Columbia University Medical Center, Department of Mental Health and Substance Use, World Health Organization				Keynote overflow room
3.10pm – 3.40pm	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
3.40pm – 4.55pm	MC10 Neuropsychiatry of traumatic brain injury (TBI)	MC11 Optimising preconception care for women with serious mental illness: new approaches, new resources	S32 The psychiatrist's role in treating trans youth in the USA	S31 Workforce well-being: what have we learned about well-being at work following the pandemic's impact over the last two years, and how do we plan for the future?	S33 Robert Kerwin prize winner symposium: using what we know works better - getting clozapine into the clinic
4.55pm – 5.05pm	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
5.05pm – 6.20pm	S36 Global perspectives in psychiatry: education, inclusion and outreach	S34 The shock of the new! The introduction of physical methods of treatment in psychiatry in Britain and Europe, 1922-1944	S35 Medical matters! What do Psychiatrists need to know about...?	S37 New approaches to addiction	MC12 Chemsex: a public health and mental health priority
6.30pm – 7.45pm				Fringe: Mindmasters
8.00pm	Congress Party The Caves, 80 Niddry Street S, Edinburgh

Thursday 23 June

	Pentland	Sidlaw	Fintry	Cromdale	Lomond	Moffat and Lammermuir	Lowther	Menteith	Harris	Student and trainee lounge
8.00am – 9.00am	Registration Strathblane hall
8.00am – 8.45am					Fringe: Empowering members to shape the future of RCPsych: The story of College's first ever full membership survey		Fringe: Yoga	Fringe: Poetry/Haiku
9.00am – 9.30am	KN15 Ms Ajibola Lewis					Keynote overflow room
9.30am – 10.00am	KN16 The shadow ongoing pandemic of domestic abuse: implications for psychiatry Professor Louise Howard, King's College London					Keynote overflow room
10.00am – 10.30am	Break Refreshments served in Lennox
10.30am – 11.45am	S39 Precision medicine and personalised healthcare in psychiatry	MC13 Parity of esteem for the psychological within a bio-psycho- social model of psychiatry; identifying a problem and addressing the need to rebuild psychological understanding at the heart of psychiatric practice	MC14 People participation in medical education: including people with lived experience in co-production and facilitation of undergraduate and postgraduate teaching and training	S38 Whole system healthcare - real world evidence to enhance rehabilitation outcomes	S40 What studies about maternal abuse, prenatal stress, childhood trauma and insights from hunter-gatherers can teach us about normal and abnormal child development
11.45am – 11.55am
11.55am – 1.10pm	MC15 Clinical neuropsychiatry of acquired brain injury and neurorehabilitation	S41 Offenders with intellectual and developmental disability in police custody and in the Courts: practice, interventions and the law	S42 The future for risk prediction models in psychiatry – target outcomes, challenges and applications	MC16 The impact of violence and aggression on NHS staff; how bad is the problem, how do we minimise the impact, how do we support?	S43 Neurodevelopmental disorders and offending behaviour
1.10pm – 2.10pm	Lunch Served in Lennox					Rapid fire poster presentations	Fringe: Demitting Officers lunch		Fringe: 1:1 coaching session	Launch of the new curricula
2.10pm – 2.40pm	KN17 Autism and mental health: new research on post traumatic stress symptoms in autistic adults Professor Francesca Happé CBE FBA FMedSci, Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience, King's College London					Keynote overflow room
2.40pm – 3.55pm	S47 Developmental coordination disorder (DCD): a neurodevelopmental disorder overlooked by psychiatry?	S45 Women's mental health and the reproductive cycle (submission from WMHSIG)	S46 Characterising negative symptoms in schizophrenia	S44 ICD 11 implementation in Scotland	MC17 How to advance equality and equity in mental health
3.55pm – 4.05pm
4.05pm – 5.20pm	S51 Partnering hard to reach communities in research- challenges and solutions	S48	MC18 Recognition and management of emergencies in eating disorders	S50 Driving new therapeutics in psychiatry: "wet-lab" psychiatry is essential	S49 Menopause and mental health					