

Monday 15 June
						Hall 2	Hall 4	Hall 12	Congress Cafe	Congress lounge	Hall 13
8.00am 10.00am	Registration
10.00am 11.15am	Green prescribing is good prescribing: innovations in evidence-based sustainable medicines management	Understanding and treating the Post-COVID Condition(PCC)	From weight management to cognitive enhancement – the use and potential of GLP-1 agonists in psychiatry	Teaching trauma-informed care in displacement and humanitarian contexts	Celebrating the voices of young people to transform mental health research
11.15am 11.45am	Break – refreshments served in Hall 2					Pitch your poster sessions	Break – refreshments served in Main hall
11.45am 12.00pm	Welcome address Dr Sridevi Sira Mahalingappa, Congress Co-Chairs and Dr Abdul Raoof, Associate Dean for Advanced Learning and Conferences
12.00pm 12.45pm	KN1 President’s opening lecture Dr Lade Smith CBE, President, Royal College of Psychiatrists
12.45pm 1.55pm	Lunch – served in Hall 2 (a plain food station will also be available)					Rapid-fire poster presentations	SAS doctors lounge	Student and resident doctors lounge	Fringe: Manasa Chitra	Fringe: Climate Cafe	Fringe: Neurodivergent inclusive mindfulness
2.00pm 3.15pm	Sexting, gaming, self-harm and social media: the impact of young people's digital lives on mental health	Managing extreme risk without restrictions: relational care for patients with complex emotional needs	Pharmacogenomics into clinical practice: development of UK guidelines	Embedding lived-experience of mental health conditions in psychiatry education: from theory to international practice	Better futures: a whole-system, life course approach to promoting healthy life and preventing premature deaths.			Doing doable jobs: a masterclass in coaching and mentoring
3.15pm 3.25pm
3.25pm 4.40pm	Electroconvulsive therapy - contemporary relevance and technical advances	"I don't swear" - Tourette syndrome across the lifespan	Learning from preventable deaths - inquests and the coroner's court	Over-involved or under-involved? The relationship between mental health services and the police	The efficacy and mechanisms of dopaminergic treatments for depression			What are the differences between systematic, umbrella, scoping and rapid reviews?
4.40pm 5.10pm	Break – refreshments served in Hall 2					Pitch your poster sessions	Break – refreshments served in Main hall
5.10pm 5.40pm	KN2
5.40pm 6.10pm	KN3
6.15pm 7.30pm	Fringe: Moving pictures: how filmmaking can entertain as well as educate			Fringe: Stand up for mental health!						Fringe: “Is that me, baby?”: the false self and the collapse of recognition in Bruce Springsteen’s Brilliant Disguise	Fringe: Nature walk (this session will take place outside)

	Wednesday 17 June
						Hall 2	Hall 4	Hall 12	Congress Cafe	Congress lounge
8.00am 9.00am	Registration
8.00am 8.45am							Fringe: Guided yoga: from stress to resilience, to pause and restore	Fringe: Mindfulness for psychiatrists: reclaiming the present moment
9.00am 9.30am	KN8 Kraepelin and Bleuler revisited: cognition, heterogeneity, and the nature of psychosis Professor Matcheri Keshavan, Professor of Psychiatry, Harvard Medical School
9.30am 10.00am	KN9
10.00am 10.30am	KN10 Preparing trainees for addiction management in India - an experiential account Dr Pratima Murthy, Former Director and Senior Professor of Psychiatry, NIMHANS, Bangalore, India
10.30am 11.00am	Break – refreshments served in Hall 2					Pitch your poster sessions	Break – refreshments served in Hall 2
11.00am 12.15pm	Advances at the interface of neurology and psychiatry	Autoimmune encephalitis in psychiatry: the RCPsych neuropsychiatry faculty guidelines	Gender diversity in the current age: understanding, measuring, and supporting adolescent experiences	Withdrawal symptoms and relapse	Addressing implementation failure for people with learning disability			Doing do-able jobs: a masterclass in coaching and mentoring
12.15pm 12.25pm
12.25pm 1.40pm	Advances at the interface of neurology and psychiatry	Is psychopathology dead? Reclaiming the foundations of clinical practice	Child development in war zones: a global perspective	Under 5’s mental health – scaling up provision to transform population mental health	New mechanisms and treatments for compulsive disorders and symptom domains; towards a precision medicine approach		Nature-based interventions – a walking workshop (spaces on this session are limited)	Confident communication – media and social media training for members
1.40pm 2.40pm	Lunch – served in Hall 2 (a plain food station will also be available)					Rapid-fire poster presentations	SAS doctors lounge	Student and resident doctors lounge	Fringe: Knightfulness: the chess challenge and Cabinet of curiosities – show and tell	Fringe: Creative art of the circle - Mandala art as a path to inner harmony
2.40pm 3.10pm	KN11
3.10pm 3.40pm	KN12
3.40pm 4.10pm	Break – refreshments served in Hall 2					Pitch your poster sessions	Break – refreshments served in Hall 2
4.10pm 5.25pm	Advancing suicide prevention through action on domestic abuse	Neurodivergence and addictive behaviours: a contemporary synthesis	Understanding the " ups and downs of dopamine" to prevent risk and inform treatment of psychotic disorders	Embedding research in routine mental health care: a coordinated national approach across psychosis and mood disorders				Research Attachment Programme (RAP): integrating research and clinical training for the next generation of Psychiatrists
5.30pm	Fringe: “If not now, when?” Raising awareness of young-onset dementia through film and lived experience	Fringe: Finding your voice; how opera can bring playfulness, emotional connection and strengthen morale in mental health teams	Fringe: After the launch: the story beyond the book	Fringe: Nature walk (this session will take place outside)	Fringe: 'Prayers not pills'; an audio play					Fringe: Congress bingo : the mind edition -"test your mind, one square at a time"
8.00pm	Congress Party

	Thursday 18 June
						Hall 2	Hall 4	Hall 12	Congress Cafe	Congress lounge
8.00am 9.00am	Registration
8.00am 8.45am								Fringe: Mindfulness: life step by step - a mindful exploration
9.00am 9.30am	KN13
9.30am 10.00am	KN14
10.00am 10.30am	Break – refreshments served in Hall 2					Pitch your poster sessions	Break – refreshments served in Main hall
10.30am 11.45am	Spirituality old and new: diverse perspectives on spirituality from assessment to formulation	Difficult-to-treat depression: medication, meditation and transcranial direct current stimulation. Integrating new research into clinical practice.	Fact or fiction: are rates of eating disorders in children and young people really increasing across England, and is 'typical' not so typical after all?	Clinical and cost effectiveness of inpatient mental health rehabilitation provided by the NHS and independent sector; final results and implications of the ACER study
11.45am 11.55am
11.55am 1.10pm	Beyond hospital walls: intensive digital and home-based treatment for severe eating disorders across the lifespan	'The right to die debate: taking stock of assisted dying/assisted suicide.'	Precision psychiatry: thinking beyond simple prediction models - enhancing causal predictions	Masterclass in clinical neuropsychiatry of neurorehabilitation and acquired brain injury	Transforming workforce mental health: evidence-based and systemic approaches to supporting healthcare professionals			The RCPsych Leadership and Management Fellowship scheme - got a problem? Come and bring it to an action learning set
1.10pm 2.10pm	Lunch – served in Hall 2 (a plain food station will also be available)					Rapid-fire poster presentations	SAS doctors lounge	Student and resident doctors lounge		Fringe: Minds, murders, and mysteries: psychiatry through the lens of detective fiction
2.10pm 2.40pm	KN15
2.40pm 3.55pm	Improving sleep on inpatient wards	Neuromodulation across the NHS: current uses and future directions	24/7 Neighbourhood mental health: first, do no harm - ideals meets implementation
Congress ends											