The Royal College of Psychiatrists in Scotland
Management and Leadership Skills Course for Senior Trainees
Wednesday 26th February 2020
Royal College of Psychiatrists in Scotland Offices
12 Queen Street, Edinburgh, EH2 1JE

Programme

9.00 – 9.25
Arrival, Registration & Refreshments

Morning Session

9.25 - 9.30
Introduction & Housekeeping
Dr Linda Findlay, Medical Director, South Lanarkshire Health & Social Care Partnership

9.30 – 9.45
Everything you ever wanted to know about Management and Leadership in 15 minutes
Dr Linda Findlay, Medical Director, South Lanarkshire Health & Social Care Partnership

9.45 – 10.15
Further Learning Opportunities for Trainees on Leadership & Management
Dr Laura Cameron, Clinical Director, NHS Lanarkshire

10.15 – 12.30
Introduction to DISC Personality Profiling Tool
Dawn Broadberry, Broadberry Consulting Ltd, Glasgow

There will be an opportunity during the above session to have a tea/coffee break

12.30 – 13.15
Small Groups
- Using the results of DISC to understand team roles

13.15 – 14.00
LUNCH

Afternoon Session

14.00 - 15.15
Small Groups
- Leadership Journeys (How did they end up as Medical Managers?)
- What’s in the inbox? (What do medical managers actually do?)

15.15 – 16.00
Performance measures and prioritisation – what your CEO wants you to know
Dr Alastair Cook, Medical Director, North Lanarkshire Health & Social Care Partnership

16.00 – 16.30
Question Time and Feedback from Group Facilitators
Dr Linda Findlay, Medical Director, South Lanarkshire Health & Social Care Partnership

There will be an opportunity during the above session to have a tea/coffee break

16.30
Close