

SW Autumn Biannual Meeting 'Physical health and Psychiatry' 12 November 2021 – Virtual via Zoom

Programme

Morning Session
9:15	Registration
9:30	Welcome Professor Rohit Shankar Chair, South West Division Royal College of Psychiatrists
9:31	Introduction and housekeeping Dr Elizabeth Ewins Consultant Psychiatrist Early Intervention in Psychosis Bath
9:35	Integrating mental health and physical health care Dr Kyra Neubauer Clinician for the Complex Assessment and Liaison Service Royal College of Psychiatrists London
10:00	Break
10:10	Vitamin D and mental disorders – cause, consequence or coincidence? Professor John McGrath Niels Bohr Professor, National Centre for Register-based Research, Aarhus University, Denmark Director, University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia
10:35	Poster prize awards
11:05	Break
11:15	Neuropsychiatric conditions Dr Robin Fackrell Consultant Neurologist Royal United Hospitals Bath NHS Foundation Trust
11:40	Teaching neuroscience to psychiatrists Professor Wendy Burn Co-Chair, Neuroscience Project and Past-President Royal College of Psychiatrists, London
12:05	Lunch

Afternoon Session

13:00 Introduction and housekeeping

Dr Dheeraj Rai
Consultant Senior Lecturer in Psychiatry
University of Bristol
Bristol

13:05 Women's mental health

Dr Meaghan Stacy
Associate Professor of Psychiatry
Yale University School of Medicine
Connecticut

13:30 Prognostically adverse cardiac changes in chronic schizophrenia

Dr Emanuele Osimo
Chain Florey Clinical Research Fellow, Imperial College London
Visiting Researcher, University of Cambridge
Academic Clinical Fellow in Psychiatry, Cambridgeshire and Peterborough NHS Foundation Trust
Cambridge

13:55 Break

14:10 Endocrinology and mental health

Dr Chloe Broughton
Consultant Endocrinologist
Royal United Hospitals
Bath

14:35 Debate: "Psychiatrists should be responsible for their patient's physical health"

Supporting: Professor Dame Clare Gerada
General Practitioner
President-Elect, Royal College of General Practitioners
Medical Director, NHS Practitioner Health Programme
Chair, NHS Assembly

Opposing: Dr Nwaorima Kamalu
Psychiatry Registrar and Education Fellow
Avon and Wiltshire Mental Health Partnership NHS Trust
Bristol

Chair: Professor Rohit Shankar

15:35 Close