

Philosophy SIG Conference 2021

Implicit bias in Psychiatric Practice: What lessons can Philosophy offer to practitioners, learners & educators?

Wednesday 15 September 2021

08:40-17:10

Time	Session
8:40-10:45	Morning Session 1: Chaired by Dr Anastasios Dimopoulos
08:40-08:45	Welcome from the Chair
08:45-09:15	For psychiatrists – a perspective on implicit bias in philosophy Dr Alistair Stewart
09:15-09:45	How to live with bias in Psychiatry Dr Dieneke Hubbeling
09:45-10:15	Recovery without normalisation? A hidden bias within the recovery framework Dr Zsuzsanna Chappell & Dr Sofia Jeppsson
10:15-10:45	Implicit bias, epistemic injustice, and moral luck Dr Lubomira Radoliska
10:45-11:15	Morning Break
11:15-12:45	Morning Session 2: Chaired by Prof Taj Nathan
11:15-11:45	Hermeneutical Flexibility and Empathic Openness in the Clinical Encounter: The Case of Delusions Dr Rosa Ritunnano, Prof Matthew Broome & Dr Anthony Vincent Fernandez
11:45-12:15	The omnipresence of risk and associated harms in secure and forensic mental health services in England and Wales Dr Sarah Markham
12:15-12:45	Historiographic methods to debias serious incident investigations Dr Sahil Bandari, Prof Øyvind Thomassen & Prof Taj Nathan
12:45-13:30	Lunch

Philosophy SIG Conference 2021

Implicit bias in Psychiatric Practice: What lessons can Philosophy offer to practitioners, learners & educators?

Wednesday 15 September 2021

08:40-17:10

13:30-15:00	Afternoon Session 3: Chaired by Dr Anastasios Dimopoulos
13:30-14:15	Implicit bias: The “dark side” of hinge epistemology? Prof Tim Thornton
14:15-15:00	Implicit Bias and the corrective role of Conceptual competence in psychiatric education Dr Awais Aftab
15:00-15:30	Afternoon Break
15:30-17:10	Afternoon Session 4: Chaired by Prof Matthew Broome
15:30-16:00	The Voice Against the Bias. Discursive Stereotypes as a Source of Epistemic Injustice Towards People with ASD Dr Maciej Wodziński & Prof Marcin Moskalewicz
16:00-16:30	Neurodeterministic causal privilege and its contribution to the formation of implicit bias; the case of seizure disorders Dr Karmele Olaciregui & Dr Laurence J Reed
16:30-17:00	Testimonial and hermeneutic injustices in adult protection and patient safety: practical lessons for psychiatrists Dr Alex Thomson
17:00-17:10	Closing remarks
17:10	End