Pride in Lockdown

Will Fox
Director of Volunteer Engagement, Pride in London
51 Years of Queer Revolt

28th June 1969 - the Stonewall Uprising started a series of events which kicked off the modern Pride movement.

A movement of activism, protests and victories.

A movement that is still well and truly moving.
Pride Matters More Than Ever

“The battle for LGBT+ equal rights in the UK has not yet been won”
- 44% (gay); 46% (lesbian); 47% (bisexual); 65% (transgender); 68% (queer)
- 1 in 2 LGBT+ people feel uncomfortable kissing their partner in public
- 55% of transgender people have been verbally abused because of who they are
- 57% of bisexual people are not out at all
- 46% of BAME LGBT+ are not out to their employers (versus 36% of White LGBT+)

(Pride Matters survey, 2018)
LGBT+ rights are of least importance to the straight majority

Question: Which three, if any, of the following issues would you say most concern you about the future?

![Bar chart showing the percentage of Straight population and LGBT+ population concerned about various issues.]

Reference: S2Q2. Base: NatRep Crisis Hetero (1537), Base: Pride Sample; Homosexual (1305), Bisexual (324), AGPP (280), Gay Men (960), Lesbian (293), Transgender (234), LGBTQ+ (1939)
Pride in Lockdown

- Impact of covid-19 on the LGBT+ community
- Volunteering for a postponed Pride
- Black Lives Matter, Always
- Gender Recognition Act
Postponed But Still United

- 30,000 Acts of Allyship
- Coming Out / Staying In
- Unity Fund
- Volunteer