

Quality Improvement Annual Conference

11 October 2022 | RCPsych, 21 Prescot Street, London E1 8BB

09.30am	Welcome and opening comments Janet Seale and Amy Chidley
09.35am	Introductory remarks from the College QI lead Dr Amar Shah
09.45am	Plenary session: The role of psychological safety in supporting improvement work Simon Tulloch, Danish Society for Patient Safety
10.15am	Improving Therapeutic Interactions with Young People: Preventing the Need for Continuous Intervention Laura Sutherland Co-production of an engagement project and developing learning resource for person centred care Sangbartta Chattopadhyay Reducing the Use of Seclusion on an Acute Medium Secure Male Ward Dansheela Markan
11.15am	Morning Refreshments and Poster Viewing
A choice of 5 sessions
11.40am	Room 1.1 Powerful Women: Improving the care of women in East London inpatient settings Ellen Camboe Improving access to contraception for female service users in East London	Room 1.2 Improving detection and management of delirium in a large acute hospital Ellen Camboe “What help do I need?” Improving communication at the transfer of care Stacey Oliver-Singleton	Room 1.3 The wicked problem of care planning: who’s problem is it? Sarah Galloway Increasing the diversity of members in CAMHS Co-production Lived Experience Community	Room 1.4 Improving Personality Disorder care across services using Quality Improvement methods: a system-wide approach Mia Morgan Improving annual physical health checks for patients with	Room 1.7 Building the QI capability of staff working in mental health services in Berkshire Healthcare Sophie Widdison The national Enjoying Work Collaborative: Using QI to increase staff wellbeing and joy in work

	Foundation Trust Sophie Kyrke-Smith These Women Can! – Trauma Informed Female Service Elizabeth Hearn	Improving the standardisation and efficiency of the occupational therapy admission process within an inpatient service Joshua Ige	within North Central London Haleemah Ahmed To reduce the total number of Promethazine and Zopiclone prescriptions by 20% by October 2022 Clare Denny	serious mental illness (SMI) in secondary care Kerry Harrison Effective caseload management strategies for a community mental health team Chance Jeong	Matthew Milarski Improving Access to the Hackney Community Learning Disability Service Laura Checkley
--	--	---	---	---	--

12.40pm Lunch and Poster Viewing

A choice of 5 sessions

1.40pm	Room 1.1 Powerful Women: Improving the care of women in East London inpatient settings Ellen Camboe Improving access to contraception for female service users in East London Foundation Trust Sophie Kyrke-Smith	Room 1.2 Improving detection and management of delirium in a large acute hospital Ellen Camboe “What help do I need?” Improving communication at the transfer of care Stacey Oliver-Singleton Improving the standardisation and efficiency of the	Room 1.3 The wicked problem of care planning: who’s problem is it? Sarah Galloway Increasing the diversity of members in CAMHS Co-production Lived Experience Community within North Central London Haleemah Ahmed	Room 1.4 Improving Personality Disorder care across services using Quality Improvement methods: a system-wide approach Mia Morgan Improving annual physical health checks for patients with serious mental illness (SMI) in secondary care Kerry Harrison	Room 1.7 Building the QI capability of staff working in mental health services in Berkshire Healthcare Sophie Widdison The national Enjoying Work Collaborative: Using QI to increase staff wellbeing and joy in work Matthew Milarski Improving Access to the Hackney
--------	---	---	--	---	--

	These Women Can! – Trauma Informed Female Service Elizabeth Hearn	occupational therapy admission process within an inpatient service Joshua Ige	To reduce the total number of Promethazine and Zopiclone prescriptions by 20% by October 2022 Clare Denny	Effective caseload management strategies for a community mental health team Chance Jeong	Community Learning Disability Service Laura Checkley
2.40pm	Afternoon Refreshment Break
2.55pm	Coproduction workshop
4.20pm	Poster prize presentations
4.30pm	Close

The conference is planned and lead by Amy Chidley, Janet Seale, Satwinder Kaur, Bini Thomas and Rizwana Dudhia.