Many thanks to Hwyl for permission to use the cover artwork. Hwyl is an art project run by Dementia Matters in Powys (DMiP) and Arts Alive Wales based at the Brecon War Memorial Hospital. The project focuses on working with elderly patients on hospital wards, with their families, carers, the ward staff and artists on a weekly basis.

Introduction to the appendices

This is the appendices for your local report. Your local report is in a separate document. The appendices present data from Round 3 of the National Audit of Dementia, both at a national level and for your hospital. Data for your hospital in Round 2 is also shown where applicable. When comparing Round 2 data with Round 3 data, please be aware that differences in sample sizes and slight wording changes to some questions, can affect results in both rounds. Therefore, conclusions made from comparing the data should be with caution. Hospitals with less than five returns for the carer or staff questionnaires have not received any data and returns of 5 to 9 questionnaires have not received demographic information. The table below shows how the data tables in the appendices are laid out and what information you can find in each cell.

Standard reference and type. Standards document can be found on the audit website .	Question number. Orange items in the casenote audit appendix show low inter-rater reliability.	Question wording as in tool.	The national audit refers to all hospitals from England and Wales that participated in the Round 3 audit.	Data for your hospital from Round 3.	If the same question or a similar question was asked in Round 2, we have provided your Round 2 response for comparison. The carer and staff questionnaires are new tools and therefore this column has been excluded in these appendices.
			We have provided the percentage 'yes' response (unless otherwise indicated) and the numerator/denominator. The denominator will change throughout the appendices, depending on whether questions were routed (not asked in some instances), 'N/A' responses were chosen (these have been excluded from the analyses), or where staff and carers did not respond.

For the organisational checklist, data from 199 hospitals are included in the national audit column (all the registered participants).

195 hospitals participated in the casenote audit, returning 10047 casenotes and this is shown in the national audit column. The national audit column for the casenote audit also shows the median and the inter quartile range for each question (where applicable). Question items which were found to have lower agreement in the inter-rater reliability analysis (see audit website) have been coloured orange.

196 hospitals returned carer questionnaires. Data from all questionnaires (4664) is presented in the carer questionnaire data tables in Appendix E.

198 hospitals returned staff questionnaires. Data from all questionnaires (14416) is presented in Appendix G. For some questionnaire items, the data for the two most positive answers have been combined, as well as being presented separately. This is provided both at a national level and for your hospital.

Appendix H: Staff suggestions for your hospital

The staff questionnaire included a question asking staff to make one suggestion on how their hospital could improve care and support provided to people with dementia. Below, all suggestions from staff at Ysbyty Gwynedd are provided.

Registered Nurses (Band 5 or 6)

Always try to perceive the needs of the patient, make them comfortable, try to put more staffing needed, get family involved.

Better training, more staffing.

Calmer environments. Day rooms with activities available. There should be more readily available snack options. I believe there should be a supper/ snack offered after their teatime meal. Not a cake ordered for teatime to be eaten later on.

Ensure adequate staffing levels for violent and wandering patients.

Have support at night to assist meeting needs with sundown syndrome.

If dementia specialist can support us during out of hours it will be very helpful on individual needs with dementia and for the staff caring for the patients. More hours from the dementia specialist.

More available staff to support the patients and their families especially during acute hospital admissions. Look at menu choices and be able to order a variety of different foods to suit the patient's needs.

More dementia support workers.

More help outside office hours, access to the dementia lounge on weekends.

More members of the specialist dementia team and more HCA's on the wards.

More staff, more beds.

More staffing, more dementia patient beds.

Not moving patients late at night.

Provide specialised units/ homes with specialised trained carers as acute hospitals do not provide care needed.

Staffing. More use of lounge or specialised help by dementia support workers e.g. with patients who require one-to-one supervision.

Support out of hours and weekends would be helpful.

Volunteers to sit/ chat with dementia patients on wards as staff are often too busy to do so.

With more support to the staff. If they come for an acute reason, the dementia should be treated as acute as well during this period as they are out of their comfort zone.

Registered Nurses (Band 7 or above)

Day room on each ward where relatives could stay as long as needed. Sleeping arrangements for carers/ partners.

Extra staff equals extra time for responsive, compassionate relationship centred care.

It could start from the highest level by developing a development plan for dementia care that encompassed key areas for priority i.e. 1. Education and training for all staff, but with greater emphasis on clinical staff training. 2. Develop a plan of hospital environmental improvements which prioritise clinical areas but include hospital signage [i.e. height of signs] lighting, flooring, colours etc. 3. Review staffing and ensure there is a plan of improvement for hospital but prioritise key areas: 1. Emergency departments 2. Acute assessment units 3. Orthopaedic wards 4. Care of the elderly units. Acute hospitals have to adjust their thinking in respect of how they care for people with dementia, from education to improving the environment of care, restricted visiting is applied across the board with no real assessment of what the exceptions should be. Acute hospitals need to strategically understand what the needs of these patients are, food hygiene regulations are a barrier, cost is constantly voiced as a problem. In reality, staffing can only be looked at from base staffing levels, they need to be increased as the incidence of dementia increases with the ageing population, this is then supported by good education and environmental improvements. Attitudes need to be challenged.

Registered Nurses (Band 7 or above)

More dementia support workers.

More Dementia support workers. We could do with more designated areas to take patients to that is quiet and more patient friendly.

More ward based training and structured courses for registered nurses. I would benefit from further training.

Patient should not be transferred to another ward.

To ensure that all the relevant patient information is ascertained on admission and to encourage family involvement at all times.

Healthcare Assistants

Access to activities, time to carry out activities, staff to take patients to take part in activities/ bring activities to them. Activities help to distract dementia patients from the more stressful situations in hospital.

An outside area or garden with easy access so dementia patients can get fresh air, stimulate their senses and get away from the hospital environment.

Be able to take [patients] to a sitting room where they can interact with other patients to play cards and other games. Not just other dementia patients.

By being in contact with at least one family member, to be able to ask them any questions about the patient at any time of day or night.

I think more dementia training needs to be given to all staff including student nurses.

If dementia support workers would work evening and weekends.

It could consider introducing a Dementia Rapid Response Team. The team could provide additional support when required e.g. one to one support, providing activities & entertainment to patients as and when needed, assistance with eating or taking walks. Sometimes patients just need reassurance and a friendly face to sit with them for an hour or two but ward staff are genuinely too busy. It's not lack of caring, just lack of time.

More dementia nurse and more care taken in which wards dementia patients are placed when there is a bed crisis.

More dementia support workers. More people in the community helping people with dementia. More placements in the community for dementia patients. More snack availability on the ward would be helpful as dementia patients don't always eat [at] set mealtimes.

More dementia support workers. Need to keep a snack box on the ward for patients at night.

More staff so we have more time with patients.

More staff, more education re: the needs of [people with dementia].

More training, more dementia support workers.

Healthcare Assistants

Provide more staff.

Sometimes all it needs is the time to spend with patients which you don't always have on a busy ward. Due to the workloads and sickness.

Doctors

Completed "this is me" documents for all patients with dementia. Part of junior doctor training days to have dementia awareness/ information/ tips.

More education for other medical staff - encouragement for the detection of delirium and dementia on admission, and a delirium follow-up clinic to screen for undiagnosed dementia.

More nursing staff to enable them to take the time they need with more complex patients such as those with dementia, instead of running nurses to their maximum capacity just for basic needs.

Allied Healthcare Professionals

A dementia champion to discuss medicines management/ liaison may be useful for medicine concerns.

Having a range of snacks available to offer as alternative if meal refused. Having more support staff to sit with patients and motivate them.

Include information within mandatory training sessions or plan organised training sessions to individual departments.

Increasing the work of the ladies in 'pink', frequent education on how it feels to have dementia until it becomes second nature to staff.

More dementia support workers, better training for general health care and therapy staff. Quiet spaces/ rooms to take patients away from the ward at times.

More information on the nursing handover cardex from ward to theatre.

Need to expand the butterfly scheme to outpatients attending diagnostic services, AHP's have to build rapport with patients very quickly in order to deliver a quality, dignified service. If we know a patient has dementia, we can arrange appropriate support. Radiographers have short interactions with patients which is why we need to know if a patient has dementia so that we can allow sufficient time to interact with the patient in a better way.

Space to take patients off the ward for rehabilitation. The ward is too busy and noisy for the patient to concentrate on instructions.

Students

Better staffing for violent patients on 1:1 care, more encouragement for families to fill in the 'this is me' package.

I felt that there is a need for more dementia support workers in the hospital, in order for more time to be spent with each patient.

More members of staff could put effort in with this is me documents, more members of staff could read the "this is me" documents.

Therapy Assistants & Allied Healthcare Professional Assistants

Patients with dementia should be cared for by qualified staff on wards for dementia patients only. Dementia patients should not be on ward. e.g. trauma where other patients are cared for e.g. shouting out, walking around requiring one to one care where there is not enough staff to comply with this. This is not criticism.

Preserve their dignity at all times. Respect their past role in life and use their title i.e. Mr, Mrs etc.

Ward-based Administrators

Dementia training available for ALL staff, not just clinical or nursing staff. Purchase of activity blankets to occupy dementia patients. More use of the voluntary service to utilise volunteers to sit, interact and do activities with dementia patients.

More specialised dementia support workers working longer than 9-5pm Monday -Friday needed. In a hospital of 600+ beds, there is only one specialist nurse and 3 support workers. Plus 'normal' staffing on wards poor so ordinary nurses/ HCAs do not have time needed to spend with dementia patients. [name] should investigate opening specialist unit to house these patients where they could receive optimum care and not be on busy admitting wards e.g. acute surgical and medical admission wards, trauma admission wards etc.

Other / Unknown

In the dementia workshop, there was no mention of Welsh language needs of some dementia patients. I did tell the speaker and he said he would incorporate it so I hope this has improved. It is fairly obvious that the patients and/ or their carers are asked at the outset of any interaction with a healthcare professional, which language they choose to speak in. So this needs to be reflected in training.

More staff to be given deeper training.

More training.

Using red lines as barriers for safety (fire exits).
