

QNCC/ACOMHS Special Interest Day: Transition from Community CAMHS to Adult Community Mental Health Services

16 September 2019

Hosted at:
Royal College of Psychiatrists, London

The Quality Network for Community CAMHS (QNCC) and Accreditation for Community Mental Health Services (ACOMHS) are hosting a joint special interest day. This is a free event open to members of QNCC And ACOMHS.

This special interest day is designed for those who work with young people and adults who transition from Community CAMH services into adult community mental health services. It provides the opportunity to explore new ideas for your own service in overcoming challenges to deliver a better service through our fantastic workshops.

The day will include:

- A range of interactive workshops run by staff working in a variety of contexts across the UK.
- The opportunity to meet and network with others working with CAMHS nationwide.
- The opportunity to network and share good practice with peers.
- Light refreshments and lunch to be provided.

If you would be interested in presenting an interactive session, please contact arun.das@rcpsych.ac.uk.

Places for this event are free for members of ACOMHS, QNCC and QNIC networks. The cost for non-members is £60.
