

Programme

|              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|--------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9.30  | Registration                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 10.00 | Welcome and introductionChair: Stephen McGowan, EIPN Advisory Group Chair and Regional Clinical Lead for EIP, NHS England and NHS Improvement                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 10.15 | An update from NCAPBelinda Lennox, Clinical Advisor, National Clinical Audit of Psychosis                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 10.30 | Quality Improvement (QI) work to increase family intervention offers and uptakeStephanie Smith, Clinical Team Manager, Tracy Harrison, Clinical Lead and Rachel Nolan, Clinical Research Practitioner, Warrington and Halton Early Intervention in Psychosis Team                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 11.00 | Break                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 11.15 | Using Evidence Implementation to Improve Physical Health Outcomes in Early Intervention in Psychosis: Learning from a Chief Nursing Officer's Research FellowshipSarah Buick and Sophie Power, Cornwall EIP Service                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 11.45 | Fidelity, flexibility and leadership in national early intervention in psychosis implementation: lessons for mental health reform from England and IrelandProfessor Jo Smith OBE, Emeritus Professor of Early Intervention and Psychosis, University of Worcester and Karen O'Connor, Consultant Psychiatrist, Cork Early Intervention Service, Ireland Health Service Executive |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 12.15 | Developing an Autism-Informed Pathway in an Early Intervention in Psychosis ServiceEmelia Steel, Assistant Psychologist, Tanya Godwin, Clinical Psychologist, Zena Paterson, Clinical Psychologist &amp; Caroline Thomas, At Risk Mental State Team Leader/Occupational Therapist, Pan-Dorset Early Intervention Service                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 12.45 | Lunch                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 1.30  | Workshop session 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|              | 1. Making music and making a differenceESTEEM Glasgow and the Common Wheel charity                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | 2. Using Nature in Art TherapyTamsin Welldon, Art Therapist &amp; Mary Haines, Assistant Psychologist, Shropshire, Telford and Wrekin Early Intervention Service |
| 2.15  | Workshop session 2                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|              | Navigating the unique challenges and complexities of working with under 18s within Early Intervention in Psychosis TeamsJenny Swift, Clinical Lead, Gemma Hurst, Care Coordinator &amp; Nicola Wait, Care Coordinator, Rotherham and Doncaster Early Intervention Service                                                                                                        | 3. Service evaluation: long-running sports groupJeremy Warner and Nick Lloyd, Bath &amp; North East Somerset Early Intervention in Psychosis Service             |
| 3.00  | Break                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 3.15  | Clinical Case Report: Autoimmune Encephalitis, a Pathway within Early Intervention in Psychosis ServicesLaura Doyle, East Lincolnshire Locality Lead and Lucy Pearce, Service Manager, Lincolnshire Early Intervention Service                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                    |

|      |                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 3.45 | Nature and Adventure Therapy interventions: more than just a pleasant walkMichael Kisson, Clinical Operations Manager, Aspire, Leeds and York Partnership NHS Foundation Trust |
| 4.15 | Closing RemarksChair: Stephen McGowan, EIPN Advisory Group Chair and Regional Clinical Lead for EIP, NHS England and NHS Improvement                                           |
| 4.30 | Close                                                                                                                                                                                     |