

Quality Network for Psychiatric Intensive Care Units and Quality Network for Inpatient Working Age Mental Health Services Trauma Informed Approaches SID

Wednesday 20 April 2022

Programme

- 09:30 Welcome and introduction
Amy Colwill, QNWA Programme Manager, and Kelly Rodriguez, QNPICU Programme Manager
- 09:35 Trauma Informed Learning
Rebecca Burgess-Dawson, National Clinical Lead for Mental Health, Health Education England
- 10:05 Trauma Informed Organisational Model in a Mental Health Trust
Shirley McNicholas, Clinical Lead, and Philippa Greenfield, Consultant Psychiatrist, Adult Safeguarding and Trauma Informed Lead, Camden and Islington NHS Foundation Trust
- 10:35 Challenges and Opportunities in Implementation
Dr Brodie Paterson, Chair, European Network for Trainers in The Management of Aggression Trustee Restraint Reduction Network
- 11:05 A Model of Trauma-Informed Care for Adult Acute Mental Health Services
Faye Nikopaschos, Clinical Psychologist, and Gail Burrell, Deputy Borough Director, Central and North West London NHS Foundation Trust
- 11:30 Break
- 11:40 Developing Trauma Informed Services in Acute Inpatient Services: Reflections from a Male Adult Acute Team
Claire Bone, Clinical Psychologist, and Kim Bannister, Trainee Advanced Clinical Practitioner, Stange Male Acute Ward, Sheffield Health and Social Care
- 12:10 Workshop: Difficulties Implementing Trauma Informed Approaches
Delegates will be divided into smaller groups for discussions
- 12:30 Workshop: Trauma Informed Approaches in PICU/Acute Services and Sharing Good Practice
Delegates will be divided into smaller groups for discussions
- 13:00 Finish

Join the conversation on Twitter @rcpsychCCQI #qnpicu #qnwa