

Quality Network for Prison Mental Health Services Managing Dual Diagnosis & New Psychoactive Substances in Prisons

Monday 28 November 2016

Royal College of Psychiatrists, 21 Prescot St, London, E1 8BB.

- 10:00 Registration and Refreshments
- 10:20 Welcome and Introduction
Seamus Watson, Mental Health Lead, Public Health England & QNPMHS Advisory Group Member
- 10:30 Forensic Addiction: Managing Comorbidity in Offenders
Dr Aideen O’Kane, Consultant Psychiatrist – Forensic and Addiction Services NTW NHS Foundation Trust
- 11:00 The Role of NPS in Deaths in Custody
Nigel Newcomen CBE, Prisons and Probation Ombudsman
- 11:30 The Bird Killer: A Study of the Outbreak of Spice (SCRA) Use on Men in English Prisons in 2016
Dr Russell Newcombe, Research & Evaluation Manager, User Voice
- 12:00 The Impact of Novel Psychoactive Substances on Acute Mental Health Services
Dr Neil Stewart, Consultant PICU and Dr Abu Shafi, Core Trainee, PICU, Highgate Mental Health Services, Camden and Islington NHS Trust
- 12:30 Lunch
- 13:30 NEPTUNE Clinical Guidance on the Management of the Acute and Chronic Harms of NPS
Dr Dima Abdulrahim, NEPTUNE Programme Manager & Lead Researcher, NEPTUNE (Novel Psychoactive Treatment UK Network), Central and North West London NHS Foundation Trust
- 13:55 Parallel Workshops: Session One
Delegates can choose to attend one themed session (max. 30 delegates per group): Identification or Management or Prevention or Collaboration
- 14:45 Afternoon Refreshments
- 15:00 Parallel Workshop: Session Two
Delegates can choose to attend one themed session (max. 30 delegates per group): Identification or Management or Prevention or Collaboration
- 15:50 Final Plenary
Seamus Watson, Mental Health Lead, Public Health England & QNPMHS Advisory Group Member
- 16:00 Close

Join the conversation on Twitter @rcpsych #qnpmhs