

RCPsych NI and RCPsych iS present:

‘Changing the Narrative’

“The role of psychiatrists and healthcare professionals in changing outdated cultures and addressing the risks and impacts of institutionalisation”.

17 November 2023, The MAC, Belfast

Booking Link: Joint RCPsych iS and RCPsych NI Intellectual Disability Conference

Programme

09:30 Welcome - Dr Heather Hanna & Dr Jana DeVilliers

09:45 ‘Safeguarding children with disabilities and complex health needs in residential settings’ – lessons from an independent review looking at the experiences of children and young adults in residential care

Amanda Allard - Strategic Director of Practice and Programmes at National Childrens Bureau

10:45 Reflections on ‘Troubles related trauma and lessons learned for learning disability services.’

Prof Ciaran Mulholland - Consultant Psychiatrist and Senior Lecturer in the Centre for Medical Education (Lead for Psychiatry)

11:30 Break

11:45 ‘Overcoming Sanctuary Trauma - How can we reduce the risks and impacts of institutional cultures’

Sarah Leitch, Director of Development, Bild & Restraint Reduction Network & Alexis Quinn, Manager, Restraint Reduction Network

12:45 Lunch

13:45 Talk TBC

Corinne Bishop - Director of Strategic Communications RCPsych

14:45 ‘Inpatient care: Who needs it?’

Dr Susie Gibbs - Consultant Psychiatrist LD CAMHS, NHS Fife

15:30 Break

15:45 In conversation with...Dr Roger Banks

Host - Dr Claire McKenna

Dr Banks, Consultant Psychiatrist & Former National Clinical Director for Learning Disability and Autism, NHS England.

16:30 Close