CPD	One event in 2016 in collaboration with RCOG: 'Me, myself and hormones: Women and their mental health'. Very well attended and very well received. Upcoming event in 2017 (8th Dec): Let's talk about sex... and mental health. No income generated for the SIG from the CPD events. Events are ticketed and covers CALC and catering charges. Symposia RCPsych Congress 2018 accepted. Domestic Violence and Abuse (DVA), Domestic Homicides and Mental Health Services: optimising the response to DVA by mental health services.	Carry on with the plan of one CPD a year. To discuss topic at the next meeting. (Nicola?) to discuss %income from CALC fees as CPD events are very well attended. Claire W is organising along with Louise Howard. Rina G suggested – (Nicola?) to discuss %income from Congress registration fees of the attendees of the symposium.
Career	Psychiatric support services want to follow up on the initial discussions WHMSIG had with PSS. Meeting 22 March 2018.	Rebecca H and Raka M will attend the meeting with PSS.
Other	Fiona Caldicott represented RCPsych at the Women in Medicine exhibition organised by Royal College of Physicians. WHMSIG and HOPSIG collaborated in the nomination. Submission for Women in Psychiatry exhibition at RCPsych Congress 2018 unsuccessful. Invitation from Agenda Alliance to attend a parliamentary seminar.	No further plans for now. Raka M will attend.
Website	Mark Turner at RCPsych.	Rina G suggested that minutes of exec meetings, AGM, Annual reports to be updated on the website.

Social media	Significant social media presence. 312 followers on twitter who actively engage with WHMSIG. Nicola, Claire and Raka only active. Rina G and Rebecca H shared that all members not active on social media and may miss the WHMSIG emails. Hence updating the website may be the way forward for those who are not very active on social media.	Group encouraged to participate more.
Membership and involvement.	Claire W volunteered to take forward the survey created by Alex C and recirculate it as we have not received any responses yet.	Claire W will convert survey into a survey monkey, making it easier for members to participate.
AOB	Annual report discussed.	Nicola/Raka to submit Annual report of WHMSIG to the Council.
Next Exec meeting		22 nd March, 4 pm at IoPPN.
