History Taking

1. Does not identify issues or priorities
2. Fails to recognise significance of aspects of history
3. Does not elicit the presence or explore in enough detail relevant symptoms/details in the history
4. Does not demonstrate adequate skills in risk assessment
5. Does not pay sufficient attention to patient's physical health/views
6. Does not identify appropriate psychological or social information

Communication

7. Disorganised/unstructured consultation. Poor management of consultation
8. Consultation appears formulaic
9. Does not show appropriate attitude or behaviour
10. Poor listening skills. Poor use and response to cues
11. Poor questioning style
12. Poor use of language in context of scenario