

Neuroscience for Psychiatrists Update Day

Wednesday 18th September 2019
University of Bristol, School of Chemistry

Neuroscience from the lab to the clinic

Join us for a fascinating series of presentations on the cutting edge neuroscience that is helping to shape our understanding of mental health conditions. This one-day event is aimed at all psychiatrists and others with an interest in neuroscience.

Research
Techniques

Computational
Neuroscience

Genetics

Epigenetics

Developmental Psychiatry

Depression

Dementia

Psychosis

Addictions

Only £10 including refreshments and lunch

Register now: www.tinyurl.com/neuroscienceupdateday

An initiative of the SW Neuronet in association with the RCPsych Neuroscience Project which is supported by The Gatsby Foundation and Wellcome Trust