Lisa Thomas ePoetry Prize

Do you have a talent for writing poetry?
Do you have a connection with mental health?
Do you have an unpublished poem with a mental health theme?

You can enter if

- you have a connection with mental health or work in the mental health sector
- you are or have previously used mental health services
- you are or have supported a friend or relative using mental health services.

...if so, the Lisa Thomas ePoetry Prize is open to you!

Closing date for submissions: 25 September 2020

Why not get creative and send in your poem now— you can find the entry form and regulations on our Prizes and Bursaries web page.
